Description

The villa is situated in an elevated position with breathtaking views of the mountains and across the River Genal valley to the Mediterranean Sea, Gibraltar and into North Africa. The villa is less than 5 minutes drive to the south of Gaucin and 25 minutes from the Costa del Sol coast and is situated on a finca of 6.5 acres, including a 250 year old olive grove, landscaped gardens and grazing land suitable for horses. The villa was completed in 2010 and constructed to a very high specification with exceptional quality finishes throughout. It cleverly combines chic elegance with simple rusticity, presenting an exquisite home with character to the discerning buyer. All the walls have been painted using natural 'cal' (whitewash) with a hint of colour using subtle Moroccan tints and there are beige hand-finished Portuguese marble floors throughout. The property is accessed via attractive Moorish-style entrance gates with a short driveway leading to the courtyard area with ample parking space. The imposing antique wood entrance doors lead into the light and spacious L-shaped open plan ground floor (15m long). This comprises the living room with a built-i...
