Description

CHARACTER, CHARM & A COURTYARD TRADITIONAL ANDALUSIAN HOUSE WITH A PRETTY COBBLED COURTYARD A very traditional large Andalusian property built around a beautiful leafy courtyard and with an abundance of character and 'old world' Spanish charm throughout. This rambling old house has been beautifully renovated over recent years transforming it into a very welcoming, stylish home with many Moorish features. It is quite quirky with lots of nooks and crannies, painted oak beams, alcoves with concealed lighting, terracotta floor tiles (ground floor). It also has the benefit of central heating and double glazing throughout. At the heart of the property, the pretty cobbled courtyard is surrounded by exotic flowering plants and shrubs, is very private and a perfect spot for al-fresco dining. (There is plenty of space for a plunge pool here if required). The antique wood entrance doors lead into a very spacious open-plan living room. As well as a sitting area there is an open fire in one corner used as the 'snug' during winter months, and a dining area. A feature arch leads into the large well-fitted kitchen with dining table and a wood-burning stove. The...
