Description

UNIQUE PROPERTY. This estate definitely has the WOW Factor. As you approach this property and view the house sitting on the hill above the lake you cannot failed to be wowed. Sitting in one of the most picturesque locations, this property is stunning. The driveway meanders up to the property which sits in an elevated position. The house is approximately 100 years old and has been lovingly resorted by its current owners. A double height hallway welcomes you to the property. To the right is the large lounge with high vaulted ceiling with the original beams, a central fire place is located at the far end of this room. Patio door lead to the elevated patio area and garden. The family kitchen diner is open plan and a good size with fitted unit in a traditional style at one end of the room with a wood fired stove as a central feature. The garden room is very special, with a large picture window/patio door that opens directly to the swimming pool, this room is currently used an artist' studio and relaxation room with BBQ and PIZZA oven. There is a double bedroom and a bathroom on the ground level too. The second-floor houses to further double bedrooms with panor...
